

© ArkansasTies

Big Woods Diorama

Witt Stephens, Jr Central Arkansas Nature Center

ARKANSAS GAME and FISH COMMISSION

Little Rock, Arkansas

Arkansas Game and Fish Commission opened the new Nature Center in Little Rock in December 2008. The Center overlooks the Arkansas River and is within the Julius Breckling Riverfront Park. The 3.4 acre site is a part of the River Market District, and adjacent to the Museum of Discovery, Clinton Foundation Store and the Clinton Presidential Library. Surrounding the center are native plantings found throughout the state, while the main building includes an exhibit hall, aquariums, gift shop, theater and special educational programs.

PROJECT FACTS

scope	Exhibit Planning and Design
size	16,000 SF
budget	$8,500,000 Total Project $2,200,000 Exhibits
architect	Cromwell Architects & Engineers
completed	2008

Arkansas River aquarium

AGFC Division Display Cases

Old Trapper's Cabin

The Center features the diversity of Arkansas' geographic regions and the wildlife that these support. Visitors can learn about Arkansas' impressive conservation efforts that have given Arkansas the name "The Natural State," including the wide variety of outdoor recreational opportunities of the state's fish and wildlife resources.